"Casey is up at the Bellevue messenger service office with a gun, and I think there is going to be trouble between him and Mr. Amberson," he said.

said.

Two mounted men jumped on their horses and the pairol was rushed out. Just as the mounted men and the patrol wagon were crossing San Antonio street, the first shot rang out, followed by four others.

It was stated that Jack Amberson, the brother of the wounded man, was holding the head of his brother when the officers arrived. Amberson was then beyond the power of speech. But prior to the arrival of the police it was said that Amberson turned to his brother, and said: "Tell my wife." Atthough it was stated that he made several efforts to speak again, he was unable to do so.

several efforts to speak again, he was unable to do so.

Coroner E. B. McClintock, who was called to hold the inquest Saturday night, announced Sunday afternoon that he had taken little testimony and would hold the inquest Monday afternoon at 2 oclock, at which time he would have all the witnesses before him. Until that time he would not render any wordict.

Coroner Visits Scene.

Sunday morning McClintock, in company with the city detectives and police, visited the scene of the shooting and made a thorough examination of the premises. Several bullet holes were found in the walls, and in the floor of the building. One bullet struck the door in Chas. Rader's auto garage two doors east and pulverized a brick. Further arrests were expected Sunday but none was made.

Amberson the dead man, had lived

Amberson, the dead man, had lived in El Paso It years. Until three years ago he was an engineer on the G. H., running east. He was former owner of the Amberson cafe on East Missouri street. He is survived by a wife, residing at 1305 Myrtle avenue, the property bequeathed to her by her father, the late John P. Casey, sr., a pioneer resident of El Paso, who died in Los Angales, Cal. a few weeks ago. Mrs. Amberson, in company with her brother, John P. Casey, who is held on a murder charge in connection with the death of Mr. Amberson, accom-panied the body of Capt Casey to El Paso, where it was interred.

Casey lives at 1509 Montana street. He has a wife and several children. A little son, a namesake of the late Col. William Greene, died several weeks ago. Casey was a brotherinlaw of Amberson, the dead man. Robertson, the other man under sevent has been a other man under arrest, has been a dealer in cattle in this section for a number of years.

The Brother's Statement,

Jack Amberson, a brother of the dead man, made the following statement to chief of police I. N. Davis, according to the chief: "I was coming out of the office at 10 colock Saturday on a call. I saw Casey just coaning up to the curbing. He had a 30-30 Winchester and it was pointed toward me. Casey said: 'You tell Will to come out of there.' I did not want to have any trouble. He told me that if I interfered he would kill me. I was there when the shooting came off. I do not know how many shots were fired. I don't remember."

Sergeant Greet, who with other po-The Brother's Statement, Sergeant Greet, who with other policemen, arrived on the scene shortly after the last shot was fired, said: "When I got there, there was a crowd in the office. A lot of them were trying to get out. My way whenever there is a killing or anything of that kind is to keep everybody in the place. Some of them went out of the windows —broke right through. -broke right through.

"Amberson was lying on the floor just inside of the door in the partition leading back to the rear of the building. A pistol was lying about one foot from his hand."

Casey Said: "Phone For Police." Dr. Richmond, to whom Casey went fter leaving the Bellevue office, stated that Casey came there to have his arm treated. The bullet, he said, entered on top of the right wrist and came up just under the elbow. "I telephoned the police," the doctor said, "at the request of Casey. Casey did not make any statement. He did talk to the police."

The doubt that existed as to Amber-The doubt that existed as to Amberson having a gun was removed when Forester stated Sunday afternoon to chief of detectives Stansel that Amberson had a $2 caliber pistol, and had had it for some time. It was stated in this connection that two empty shells were found in the chamber of the revolver.

Saturday night, upon learning what had transpired, she went directly to the office on Texas street.

Sunday afternoon Forester sent two messages to Amberson's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Amberson, who reside at O'Neil, Aria. The funeral arrangements will not be made until their arrival.

Sunday, under guard, Casey was taken to Hotel Dieu, where his wound was treated, after which he was taken back to the county jail.

More Warrants Out. have been issued for men supposed to have been with John P. Casey, jr., on the night of the shooting, but as far as could be ascertained, these have not been served as yet.

me."

Casey appeared to be suffering excruciating pain, caused by the builet wound inflicted in his right arm. The arm was done up in plaster of paris. At the time Dr. J. M. Richmond was attending him. Casey complained to the doctor that he was sick at the stomach, and the doctor replied that he would send him some medicine.

Wae Shot Casey?

Neither the detectives nor the police have positively established who fired the shot that struck Casey. It was stated Casey asserted that he had been shot by Amberson, but which Amberson he meant has not been definitely stated. Jack Amberson, a brother of the dead man, was at the Bellevne messenger office on Texas street when the shooting occurred. According to the statement of C. L. Forester and several others, Jack Amberson was outside of the office when the shots were fired.

Saturday night there were two shots fired in rapid succession, and there was a lapse of from five to 10 seconds when they were followed by three or four shots. The last shots, it was said, were fired so rapidly that no count could be taken. There were four empty Winchester shells found in the place, and according to the police, these gave evidence that they had just been exploded. Who Shot Casey?

Sensational Testimony.

So far, no one has been able to say whether the first shots were pistol shots, or were fired from a rifle. This and further testimony, bordering, it is said on the sensational, is expected to be brought out at the examining trial, which will be held at 2 oclock Monday afternoon in justice E. B. McClintock's

Court.

Pinkey Robertson, who is being held in connection with the case, was reported to have met Casey inte Saturday night when he was on his way home from a moving picture show. It was stated that Casey told him to get into the surrey and he would drive him home. After Robertson got into the surrey it was said Casey told him that he had some papers to leave at the Bellevie messenger office on Texas street, and for that purpose drove around to that place. The presence of the other two men in the vehicle who were said to have been with Casey and Robertson has not been explained.

It is understood that Casey has re-

It is understood that Casey has retained judge T. A. Falvey, Victor Moore tained judge T. A. Falvey, Victor Moore and Coldwell & Sweeney to defend him, and that the prosecution, in addition to county attorney W. W. Bridgers, will be represented by a prominent attorney employed by Mrs. Amberson, who is Casey's sister.
